Sir,

I have the honor to state that in a case of House breaking and theft which occurred in the house of one Chinnamma Heggadathi of the Thirthahalli Taluk, Shimoga District, property to the value of Rs.4,420/- was recovered out of property worth Rs.4,700/- stated to have been lost.

2. The complainant in the case has paid a sum of Rs.420 to be awarded to the Police officers and men who worked for the detection of the case. The Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga has recommended the names of the marginally noted men for the grant of the reward and I request that sanction of Government may be accorded for distributing a sum of Rs.320/- among the several officers as noted in the margin and for crediting the balance of Rs.100/- to Government as Inspector Mr. Subbanna who has been recommended by the Police Superintendent for a reward of Rs.100 is in my opinion not deserving of any reward for reasons detailed in the copy of my order submitted to Government with my letter No.8178/593 dated 29-5-1918.

1. C. R. Subba Rao Jamedar, Thirthahalli	Rs.100-0-0
2. K. Siddappa Gowda, Patel of Nallur	...100-0-0
3. Subba Rao, Duffedar, Agumbi station	... 30-0-0
4. Govinda Setty, Duffedar	... 30-0-0
5. Sanka Setty, constable No.99	... 20-0-0
6. Soora Setty, constable No.139.	... 20-0-0
7. Anantha Naik, constable No.216	... 20-0-0
	Rs.320-0-0

3. In this connection I beg to state that under the Rules issued with Government order No.J.2889/Police 239-15-12 dated 29-1-1918(published in the Mysore Gazette dated 31-1-1918, Part I, page 61), it is laid down that sanction of Government should be obtained when the reward amounts offered by private individuals in any case exceeds Rs.100/-; but no such limit is prescribed in the Police Manual recently issued by Government according to which the Inspector General of Police is competent to sanction the acceptance of rewards offered by private individuals, whatever may be the amount. I beg to be favoured with the orders of Government as to which of the Rules should be observed in cases of this kind.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.

ADDENDA AND CORRIGENDA TO THE MYSORE POLICE MANUAL.

II

Substitute the following for Article 128 of the Mysore Police Manual, Volume I:—

123. Police officers shall, under no circumstances, accept rewards direct from private persons or corporate bodies.

Sums of money tendered by private persons or carporate bodies as rewards for detection of crime or other good work may be accepted by Superintendents of Police and deposited in the Treasury under the head 'General Police Rewards.'

Before accepting the rewards offered by private individuals, the Superintendents should satisfy themselves that they are given voluntarily.

No rewards shall be distributed until the case in connection with which they were tendered has been finally disposed of.

After the final disposal of the case, the Superintendent shall withdraw the money from the Treasury and if the money has been earned, distribute it, provided that before making distribution he shall obtain the sanction of the Inspector-General of Police to all sums up to Rs. 100 in each case and of Government, through the Inspector-General of Police, in cases when this limit is exceeded.

If the money is not earned by any one the Superintendent shall refund it to the depositor."
